Following the success of its first edition in Crete in May 2008, 3AF and ESA are pleased to announce:

ESA-3AF SPACE PROPULSION 2010

Kursaal Conference Centre, San Sebastian (Spain)
3rd to 6th May 2010

The second of a new series of international conferences on technical and programmatic aspects related to the development and application of Space Propulsion technologies.

The aim of the forum: open the way for the communities of both spacecraft and space transportation propulsion to work together to support ongoing and future work in the field.
